RE: Notice of Intent to Deregister and Permanently Transfer One or More Load Buses

Dear Sir or Madam:

[Customer's name] ("Customer") hereby notifies the NYISO that Customer intends to deregister the load buses identified in Attachment A ("Load Buses") effective [month, day, year] (the "Effective Date").³¹

Customer hereby acknowledges and agrees that:

- (1) Customer has, or will have prior to the Effective Date, satisfied all criteria set forth by the Public Service Commission of the State of New York, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, New York state law, and any other state or federal laws or regulations required in order for Customer to sell, transfer, retire and/or deregister the Load Buses.
- (2) The bidding and scheduling information pertaining to the Load Buses submitted or generated prior to the Effective Date may be made available to other parties that subsequently assume control of the Load Buses. Customer hereby waives any objection to such bidding and scheduling information being provided to such parties.
- (3) While the NYISO will deregister the Load Buses for billing purposes as of 00:00:01 on the Effective Date, any new party responsible for the Load Buses will not have the ability to schedule or bid those Load Buses until after the NYISO links the physical access to the Load Buses to the new party (unless the MIS

³⁰ The new party responsible for the load buses must be a registered NYISO Customer, in good standing, on the effective date of the transfer.

³¹ The effective date must be the 1st of a month. The effective date must also be 60 or more days after the date the NYISO receives this notice.

Administrator for the Customer adds the new party as one of the Customer's authorized users). The NYISO will only change the links to allow for bidding and scheduling of Load Buses during normal NYISO business hours. Accordingly, Customer agrees to continue scheduling and bidding the Load Buses on behalf of, and in accordance with the directions given by, the new party until the NYISO links the physical access to the Load Buses to the new party.

- (4) Customer will remain responsible for payment of all obligations associated with the services Customer received under the NYISO OATT or NYISO Services Tariff related to the Load Buses through the Effective Date, including, but not limited to, payment for rebills, adjustments and resettlement, in accordance with Article 7 of the NYISO Services Tariff and Article 2.7 of the NYISO OATT, and any other financial obligations arising under the NYISO OATT or NYISO Services Tariff.

RE: Notice of Intent to Register One or More Permanently Transferred Load Buses

Dear Sir or Madam:

[Customer or Applicant's name] ("Customer") hereby notifies the NYISO that Customer intends to register one or more load buses identified in Attachment A ("Load Buses") effective [month, day, year] (the "Effective Date").³²

Customer hereby acknowledges that:

- (1) Customer is, or will be as of the Effective Date, a registered NYISO Customer that has satisfied all of the applicable requirements for participating in the NYISO-administered markets.³³
- (2) Customer has, or will have prior to the Effective Date, satisfied all criteria set forth by the Public Service Commission of the State of New York, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, New York state law, and any other state or federal laws or regulations required in order for Customer to own and/or operate the Load Buses.
- (3) While the NYISO will register the Load Buses for Customer for billing purposes as of 00:00:01 on the Effective Date, Customer will not have the ability to schedule or bid those Load Buses until after the NYISO links the physical access to the Load Buses to the Customer (unless the MIS Administrator for the transferring party adds Customer as one of its authorized users). The NYISO will only change the links to allow for Customer's bidding and scheduling of Load Buses during normal NYISO business hours. Accordingly, Customer agrees to coordinate directly with the transferring party and instruct the transferring party on the scheduling and bidding of the Load Buses on behalf of Customer until the NYISO links the physical access to the Load Buses to Customer.

³² The effective date must be the 1st of a month. The effective date must also be 60 or more days after the date the NYISO receives this notice.

³³ The NYISO will not transfer the Load Buses unless the new party responsible for the Load Buses is a registered NYISO Customer, in good standing, on the effective date of the transfer.

If you have any questions, please contact [contact name] at [phone number].
