Re: Request for Extension of Comment Period in Docket No. ER06-185-002.

Dear Secretary Salas:

On September 5, 2006 the New York Independent System Operator, Inc. ("NYISO"), submitted a pair of related filings in Docket No. ER06-185-002; each of these related filings included several attachments. Although the NYISO engaged in a timely, good-faith effort to satisfy its service obligations, the NYISO inadvertently failed to serve one of the documents it filed with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission ("Commission") on the parties to the official service list that your office maintains. The NYISO corrected this error as soon as it was informed of its omission, on September 11, 2006.

Your office issued notice of the NYISO's filings on September 11, 2006, setting a comment date of September 26, 2006. In order to ensure that no party is prejudiced by the NYISO's failure to timely serve all relevant documents on the parties to the Commission's official service list, the NYISO respectfully requests an extension of the comment date in Docket No. ER06-185-002 from September 26, 2006 to October 2, 2006.

Please contact the undersigned if you have any questions regarding this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Alex M. Schnell
