

NYISO PROJECTION OF FUTURE CONGESTION

The Transmission Owners, LIPA and NYPA would accept the projection of future congestion by the NYISO, provided that the assumptions upon which the projections are based are reviewed and are approved in the NYISO committee process; a range of assumptions is provided; a range of results is provided; the projections are accompanied by appropriate caveats (e.g., that the NYISO projections are based on assumptions that may or may not prove to be correct).