Re: Deadline for Submitting Comments in New York Independent System Operator, Inc. Docket No. ER06-185-000

Dear Secretary Salas:

On November 8, 2005 the New York Independent System Operator ("NYISO") submitted a Report of Tariff Implementation Errors and Request for Limited Tariff Waivers ("Request") that was assigned the above-captioned docket number. The Commission issued a Notice of Filing in the above-captioned docket on November 18, 2005 that set November 29, 2005 (today) as the comment date on the NYISO's Request.

The NYISO held a working group meeting with its Market Participants today, at which meeting the NYISO committed to provide affected Market Participants with more specific data regarding the potential financial impact of the NYISO's correction of tariff implementation errors on each Market Participant. The NYISO has committed to provide preliminary information to affected Market Participants today.

The NYISO recognizes that the information being provided today could affect the position that certain Market Participants take in the comments they file in the above-captioned docket. For this reason the NYISO has informed its Market Participants that it will not object to their submission of late-filed comments, so long as comments are filed by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, December 6, 2005. The NYISO would support a Commission extension of the official comment date to Tuesday, December 6, 2005, if such extension is requested by a Market Participant.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Alex M. Schnell
