

FERC ORDERS – DECEMBER 2002

- Dec. 3, 2002 FERC order partially granting a third party request to compel the NYISO to provide responses to certain data requests regarding the cost allocation for new interconnection facilities (EL02-125-000)
- Dec. 6, 2002 FERC notice granting the NYISO an extension of time until December 16, 2002 to submit a virtual report on trading for the Summer 2002 Capacity Period (ER01-3009-000, ER01-3591-000, EL00-90-000)
- Dec. 6, 2002 FERC ALJ order extending the initial decision deadline until April 1, 2003 and suspending the procedural schedule regarding a third party complaint v. NYISO concerning the cost allocation for new interconnection facilities (EL02-125-000)
- Dec. 9, 2002 FERC order and opinion on its May 23, 2002 initial decision regarding a third party complaint v. PJM, NYISO and another third party concerning transmission service issues (EL02-23-001)
- Dec. 18, 2002 FERC letter approving the settlement agreement between a third party, NYISO and another third party regarding a complaint v. NYISO concerning station power issues (EL01-50-001)
- Dec. 19, 2002 FERC letter order accepting the NYISO tariff amendment to Rate Schedule 2 regarding an extension of voltage support service through 2003 (ER03-112-000)
- Dec. 23, 2002 FERC order denying the NYISO's request for a revised procedural schedule regarding the Keyspan complaint v. NYISO concerning cost allocation for new interconnections (EL02-125-000)

The above list is current as of 2:28 p.m. Jan. 3, 2003.