

Voltage Support Service

Negotiations Process Schedule

Following a kick-off meeting of the Market Structures Working Group (MSWG) on December 16, 2005, Rick Miles of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission Dispute Resolution Service will hold a series of individual and group caucus meetings to facilitate agreement on: (i) an issues list; (ii) classifying issues for immediate and longer-term resolution, with the goal of a comprehensive list and a schedule for resolving all outstanding voltage support service (VSS) issues; (iii) identifying options for resolving immediate issues. The parties appeared to be amenable to the following deliverables and schedule:

December 16 –
January 6

- (i) stakeholders may send any background information or other materials they would like Rick to have;
- (ii) NYISO will send Rick Miles the voltage-related MSWG presentations and material for 2005;
- (iii) NYISO will establish a parties' list for the negotiations, with contact information, and e-mail the list to the parties and post it on the NYISO website

January 6 : Stakeholder caucus meetings with Rick Miles in New York City

January 10-12: Stakeholder caucus meetings with Rick Miles in Albany

January 17: Issues and approaches list from Rick Miles to be e-mailed to the parties and posted on the NYISO website

January 19: All-parties meeting in Albany

Subsequent meetings and schedule for negotiations to be decided on January 19.
