Mobile Computing

John Bub
Manager, Business and Finance Products
New York Independent System Operator

Customer Support Focus Group
January 27, 2017
Rensselaer, NY

DRAFT – FOR DISCUSSION PURPOSES ONLY

Societal Evolution

- "Mobile computing represents the most significant shift in IT since the birth of computing"
  - Laptops to tablets to smart phones
  - Phone – can now serve as the centerpiece of personal and business entertainment, communication, and productivity
- Browser vs. Applications

ISO/RTO Evolution

- Mobile responsive websites
  - PJM
- Mobile apps
  - ISO New England
  - California ISO
  - ERCOT

NYISO Evolution

- Have you identified an interaction with NYISO that might benefit from a downloadable app?

- Choosing when and where to develop (possible examples)

  - Data: OASIS, Maps, Graphs, …
  - Committee meetings: calendar, materials,…
  - Hot topics

The mission of the New York Independent System Operator, in collaboration with its stakeholders, is to serve the public interest and provide benefit to consumers by:

- Maintaining and enhancing regional reliability

- Operating open, fair and competitive wholesale electricity markets

- Planning the power system for the future

- Providing factual information to policy makers, stakeholders and investors in the power system

www.nyiso.com