

Consolidated Edison statement on potential market problem regarding Net EAS revenue calculation

Con Edison appreciates the NYISO's diligence and transparency in communicating the potential market problem to stakeholders, determining its impacts, and considering potential remediation approaches. Con Edison also believes that the fix to the Net EAS model and resulting ICAP Market reference prices should be made as soon as practical.