Bylaws Participation Rules

Under the NYISO Committee Bylaws, Committee meetings are open to non-members who are not announced guests of a Member on an in-person basis only.

The participation rules that apply to the Committees also apply to all Working Groups, Sub-Committees and Task Forces that were formed by or that report to the Committees.

Committee Bylaws Participation Rules

For example, Management Committee Bylaws Section 4.16:

Participation Rules. Guests of Members and the public may attend meetings of the Management Committee, subject to the following conditions:

- Representatives who are attending the meeting by a method other than in person shall announce their guests at the beginning of the meeting. The Secretary shall keep a list of all guests so announced with the minutes of the meeting.
- The public may only attend in person and shall register with the Secretary before entering the meeting. Guests of Members who attend with the representative in person shall also register with the Secretary before entering the meeting. The Secretary shall keep a list of those who register with the minutes of the meeting.
- The public shall not be allowed to participate in meetings of the Management Committee. A guest of a Member may be allowed to participate in a meeting at the request of the Member, with the consent of the Chairperson.
- Guests and the public in attendance at any meeting must leave the meeting if the Management Committee goes into executive session. Following the end of the executive session, registered guests and the public may return to the meeting.
- Participation in Working Groups, Sub-Committees, and Task Forces that were formed by, or report to, the Management Committee shall be governed by participation rules for the Management Committee.
