

Updated MSE Implementation Schedule

---

Chris Russell

Manager, Customer Settlements

Metering Task Force

September 20, 2019

Updated Implementation Schedule

- Technical Bulletin 247
  - Effective period extended to April 30, 2020
  - In Review: September 18, 2019
  - Published: September 25, 2019
- Anticipated Meter Services Entity Manual Stakeholder discussions
  - MTF: October 4, 2019
  - BACWG: October 20, 2019, TBD – November 2019, December 2019 & January 2020
  - BIC: December 11, 2019, January 5, 2020, February 12, 2020
  - Published: March 1, 2020

Updated Implementation Schedule

- NYISO intends to begin accepting Registration Packet and Meter Inventory Release documentation on March 1, 2020 (pending FERC acceptance of MSE-related tariff revisions)
  - Entities considering becoming an MSE are encouraged to review the Registration Packet and meter inventory documentation prior to March 1, 2020, and seek NYISO guidance if you have questions or concerns
- May SCR/EDRP Enrollments
  - Open: March 24, 2020
  - Close: April 8, 2020
- Anticipated MSE Start Date
  - May 1, 2020

The Mission of the New York Independent System Operator, in collaboration with its stakeholders, is to serve the public interest and provide benefits to consumers by:

- Maintaining and enhancing regional reliability
- Operating open, fair and competitive wholesale electricity markets
- Planning the power system for the future
- Providing factual information to policymakers, stakeholders and investors in the bulk power system

www.nyiso.com

Questions?